

Query#1: How many tracks are there per album, limiting the result to the first four?

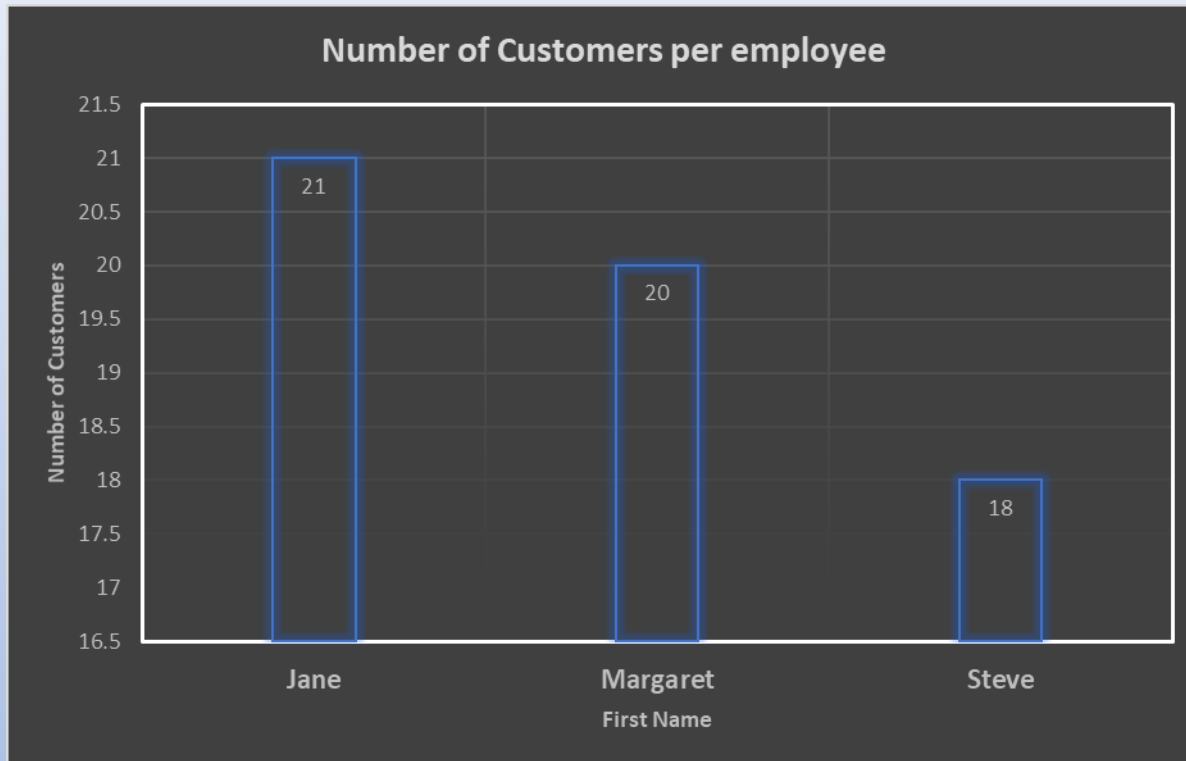

The query is to find the number of tracks for each album. The results are limited to the first four.

Query#2: How long is each album, limiting the result to the first four?

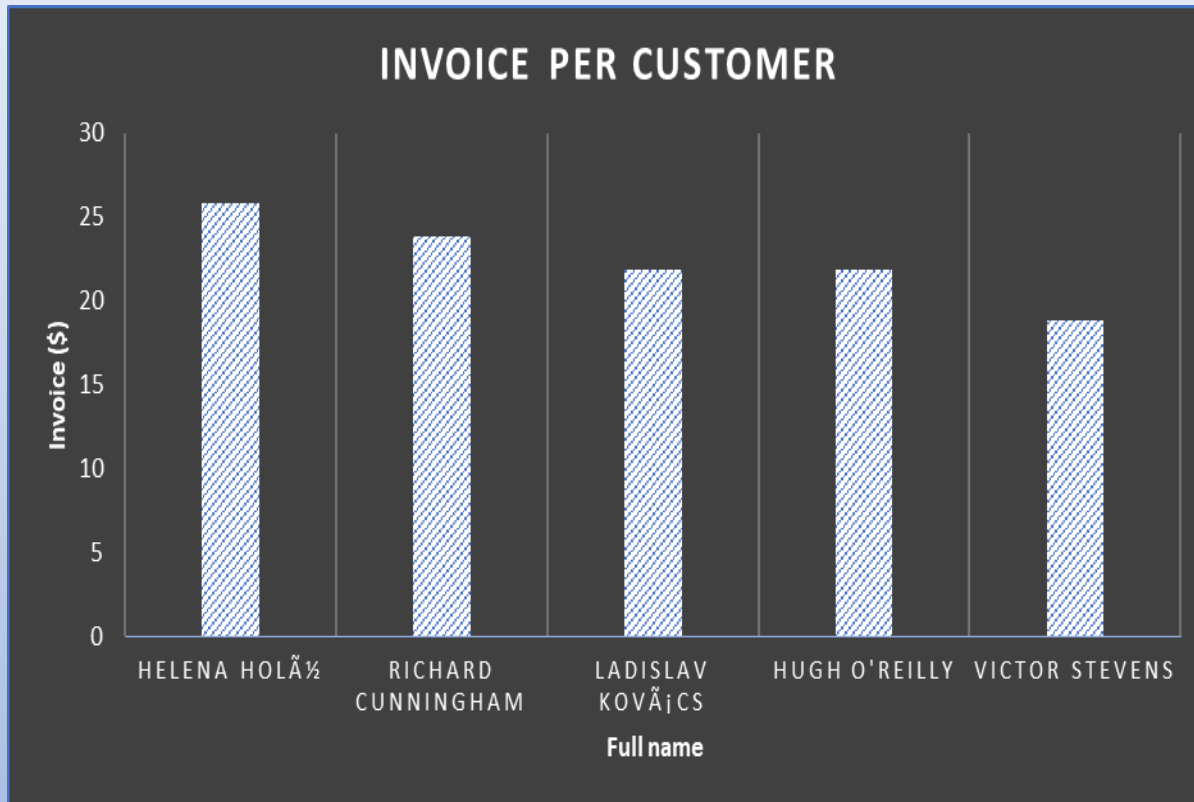

The query is to calculate the total time in hour for each album from the table (album). The results are limited to the first four.

Query#3: How many customers are there per employee?

The query is to find the number of customers for each employee).

Query#4: Who is the customer who has the highest invoice?

Helena has the highest bill

The query is to find the customer full name who has the highest bill.